

The Fire: Everything about the cremation fire is bogus, and is enough by itself to show that the Treblinka story is a fraud. According to the story they changed their mind after burying 700,000 bodies (the population equivalent of San Francisco, California) and instead dug the bodies up, and cremated them on outdoor fires. But consider that: 1) There's no wood warehouse or even a woodshed at Treblinka. Wood needs to be stored in a dry place to burn well. 2) There's no slanted high roof over the fire area, yet it rains a lot in Poland in the Spring and Summer when this supposedly happened. 3) There's no wind block or any structure to hold the heat in and reflect it toward the bodies. 4) The cremation area is surrounded by a fence made out of tree branches and barbed wire, but tree branches are flammable. Such a fence is ridiculous in and of itself. Try to imagine the Americans using tree branches in a fence for a POW camp or a secret operation. The 4-hour free internet video "One Third of the Holocaust" found at holocaustdenialvideos.com deals with all these issues and much more.

Red line denotes tree branch fence. Primitivism which makes more sense as a stage set for Planet of the Apes or Gilligan's Island; and easily lit on fire from #36, the inmates barracks.⁵

32: gas chambers. 35: outdoor cremation grills. 34: burial pits. 36: inmates barracks. 33: old chambers.

The Water Well: It's in the middle of 700,000 buried bodies, while just one body might have been enough to contaminate the water in the sandy soil of Treblinka. It supplied the inmate kitchen. It's a storytelling mistake.⁶

The Haircut: We're supposed to believe that it had nothing to do with delousing and had everything to do with the Germans going to all the trouble to cut 1,000 women's hair (in one batch) to make 3-4 mattresses.⁷

UCLA History Department
Above random photo is used not to point out these specific members, but to denote H-depts. in general.⁸

→
UPHOLDS

Persecution in Mideast
A school in Gaza, 2009
Note basketball hoop on left.

The holocaust is a late-colonialist myth. The European Jews who went to Israel after WWII needed strong ideological justification after 40 years of fruitless attempts to obtain Israel. Your acquiescence is part of a comfortable college atmosphere for yourself, but leads to suffering in the Middle East. Why has not a single History professor ever said Yankel Wiernik is a fraud? Are you going to choose the comfortable academic life, or a very uncomfortable ostracized life by speaking the truth in order to save Palestinian, Iraqi, and Iranian lives? You're in a position to help the world at great sacrifice to yourself. What's your choice?

Footnotes at www.holocaustdenialvideos.com/treblinkasources.html